Heart's campaign is being pitched upon the proposition to restore the American system of government to the country. To abolish bosses, and to do away with corporation control of the government.

It does not explain. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot has a paragraph more to the point. Mr. Bryan endorses Mr. Hearst as a Democrat. He says our Norfolk contemporaries.

Evolution of the Battleship. A London correspondent makes bold the statement that the new battleship Dreadnought is a great success from every point of view.

The Menace of the All-Night Dive. In discussing the question of earlier closing for the bar-rooms of the city it should be remembered that at present the bar-rooms close at midnight.

The State Fair. The State Fair does not improve much as being a State Fair. Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and Indiana seem to have forgotten the exhibit.

Warnings. Your two prophesies were made concerning this republic, the one by Minuteman, the other by De Trousseau.

Bryan and Hearst. One of the peculiarities of the present race, is that Mr. William J. Bryan has not gone to New York to stump the State in the interest of Candidate Hearst.

Coined Words. Senator Dumble's use of the coined word "pollination" has inspired an article in one of the New York newspapers on coined words in general.

THE STATE FAIR. The State Fair at Richmond, which has just closed, was the most successful one ever held in the South. It was a grand success in every respect.

Drunken Husbands. In a recent number of your paper the Petersburg Index-Appal, in an article on "Drunken Husbands," has given the following statistics.

TO ENJOY LIFE. You must first of all have good health, and since the stomach is the measure of man's health, it is important to see that it is restoring to a normal condition.

Sanctuary. SHE is so much for pain, for sufferings and sorrows. She will with all the sorrows. She will with all the sorrows.

A Comparison. Editor of The Times-Dispatch: In the political game is now verging on the approaching election for Governor in New York State.
